Destructive Fire at Truckee.

At 7 o'clock last evening fire broke out in the huge lumber yard at Truckee. For a time fears were entertained that the town would be again swept off the map, but by 9:30 o'clock a telephone message was received by C. M. Lake to the effect that the fire was under control. The Bicycle Races Attract a Big Crowd—Balloon Ascension.

Yesterday was the closing day of the fair and with the exception of Monday was the best attended of the week.
The chief attractions were the balloon ascension and bicycle races. Robert Earleton, the well known aeronaut, made a magnificent parachute leap. The day was calm and the balloon arose almost perpendicular for 1,500 feet. Prof. Earleton descended hanging by his toes and landed just outside the fair grounds.
The bicycle races were hotly contested and splendid time was made. Shortly after 1 o'clock the twelve mile relay race was begun. The timers' watches showed the following records for each relay of two miles:
First—Johnson and Hewlett, 5:38.
Second—Kornmeyer 5:14 4-5; Frazier, 5:15.
Third—A. Peckham won from Hart in 5:01 2-5.
Fourth—Claude Mershon, 5:10 3-5; El Shaver, 5:10 2-5.
Fifth—Stanley and Thompson road a dead heat in 5:07 2-5.
Sixth—Keddie, 5:01 4-5; J. Peckham, 5:02 2-5.
At the conclusion of this hotly contested event by piked teams from the Reno Wheelmen, a mile handicap was ridden. Keddie and Thompson were stationed on the scratch. J. Peckham was given 10 yards, A. Peckham, 20; Frazier, 30; Mershon, 40; Kornmeyer, 50; and Johnson, 75. Keddie won in 2:16 2-5. Mershon was second and Frazier third.
Keddie also won the half mile scratch in 1:13 3-5. A. Peckham got second prize and Kornmeyer third.

Today's Program at Race Track.

Prof. Robert Earleton, who made the thrilling balloon ascension and parachute drop at the track yesterday, is to offer an exceptional program of outdoor sports, including a grand balloon ascension, cowboy tournament, bicycle races and other sports, at the race track this afternoon at 2 o'clock.
Earleton will ascend heavenward hanging by his teeth from a parachute trapeze, and promises to duplicate the magnificent ascension of yesterday, which is the talk of the town. The cowboys will do rough and trick riding, lassoing and riding wild horses, picking up objects on the run, corral lassoing and quick saddling, vaulting, etc.
Another good feature will be John Jennings, a circus rider, in feats of single and bareback riding. The bicycle riding will be another interesting feature, so that all in all a good afternoon's sport is promised. Should there be any other bicycle or rough riders wishing to enter the sports they can learn all particulars and enter at office of Golden Eagle hotel this morning from 9 to 12 o'clock. The admission fee will be only 25 cents.
C. A. Doyle, a manager of experience, will conduct the arrangements, and there will doubtless be a big crowd in attendance.
Six of Steve Curry's busses will carry people to and from the grounds free of charge, starting at 1 o'clock.
In the Enemy's Camp.
The Republican county convention which meets in this city tomorrow will, with respect to a majority of the nominations, be in the disagreeable situation of the post who wailed: "How happy would I be with either, were the other dear charmer away."
Fogg, however, has pretty clear sailing for the county clerk nomination. McNeilly will have no opposition for sheriff and Leeper has a walkover for constable.
Excursion Rates.
The V. & T. Railroad Company has made the following low rates to the Ormsby county fair, good on all regular trains from September 23 to 30th inclusive:

Two Splendid Renditions.
The Elleford company finished a most successful week's engagement last night. The house was packed at every performance. At yesterday's matinee "The American Girl" was played, and last night's bill was "Beacon Lights."
Mr. Elleford broke the record of McKiesick's opera house. He played to the biggest business in the history of the theater at popular prices.
The troupe goes to Carson to-day for a week's engagement. We regret that we could not have them here for another week. The Elleford people are not only our entertainers, but our friends.
Contract Not Let.

Are always a lucky find, because there are so many inferior ones on the market.
